ABOUT US

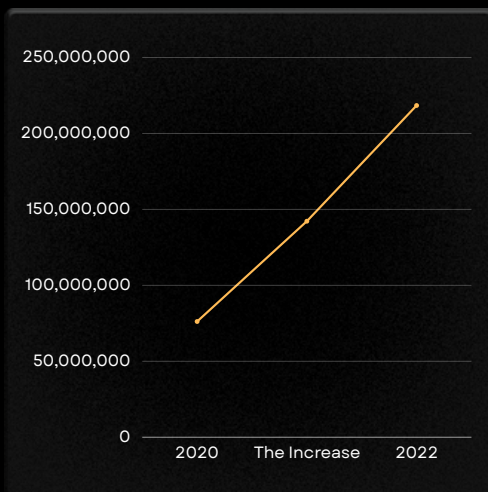

TaxSolutions.AI (TSAI) is a cutting-edge DeFi utility token that streamlines cryptocurrency tax reporting through a sophisticated AI-driven Telegram bot. By automating the tracking and analysis of wallets, TSAI simplifies tax calculations and ensures compliance, offering users peace of mind and financial optimization. As a valuable educational resource, TSAI also provides strategic DeFi tax advice to make the most out of your portfolio and how to maximise profits, making it an essential tool for anyone looking to navigate the complexities of cryptocurrency taxation with ease and confidence.

We created TaxSolutions.AI as we saw the increasing number of people entering the crypto space unaware of the pitfalls and problems involved from a tax perspective. TaxSolutions.AI will solve this problem by simplifying the process for users by providing a easy and simple template to submit tax returns and save money while doing it.

THE TIPS & TRICKS

TaxSolutions.AI is helping you put the pieces together. We plan to simplify your life, we do this through random Tips and Tricks for Tax & Crypto Currency that will have the potential to save you money and keep you on the right side of the Law. We will give you snippets of information and down the line maybe a whole course...

Q HOW DO GAS FEE'S COME INTO TAX?

Gas fees in cryptocurrency can often be deducted, affecting taxable income and capital gains calculations.

Q PUNISHMENT FOR NOT DECLARING?

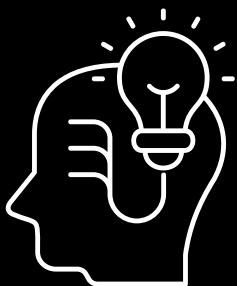

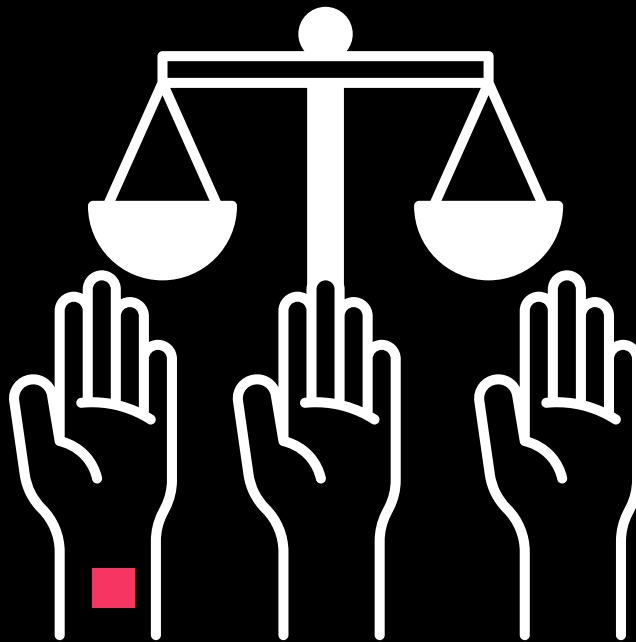

Not declaring cryptocurrency to tax authorities can lead to penalties, interest on unpaid taxes, and in severe cases, legal action or criminal charges. The exact consequences vary by jurisdiction and the extent of the non-compliance.

Q IS CRYPTO ALL TAXED THE SAME?

crypto tax is not the same for everyone; it varies based on activities like trading, mining, or developing. Traders may face capital gains taxes, while miners could be taxed as income, and developers might have different tax liabilities

COMMUNITY COLLECTIVE

We are a community collective, this means that we will hold regular X Spaces, Telegram VC's and more to ensure consistent delivery of information to our community. We have decided to make use of a poll voting system that will lead to decisions supported by the majority of a community for decisions ranging from marketing to future developments.
